

RESUME

J. Larry Hood
188 Timberlane Court
Nicholasville, Kentucky 40356
1-859-223-9825
Jhood188@windstream.net

EDUCATION

Fern Creek High School
Graduation prize in natural science

Centre College
George L. Baker Scholarship
Graduation prize in history and government
B.A. in history and government

Xavier University
M.B.A. with concentration in management

Kentucky State University
Associate degree in computer science

Kentucky Governmental Service Center
Certified Public Manager

University of Kentucky
NDEA Fellowship
M.A. in history
Ph.D. in American history

WORK EXPERIENCE

Adjunct professor at various times for Bellarmine University, University of Kentucky, Kentucky State University, Lexington Community College, teaching courses in

Organizational Behavior

Marketing

Interest Group Politics

Kentucky History
United States History

Western Civilization

Speaker for the Kentucky Humanities Council and the Kentucky Elderhostel Program, speaking on U.S. Constitutional History and Kentucky History

Kentucky State Government, twenty-eight years, twenty-six in management

Governor's Kentucky Program Development Office

Health planner---set up one of the state's fifteen comprehensive health-planning councils

Researched and prepared reviews of U.S. Congressional action for state legislators

Inspector General's Office, Cabinet for Human Resources

Manager and Assistant Director of Licensing and Regulation

Office of Policy and Budget, Cabinet for Human Resources

Cabinet Policy Analyst

Management and Development, Cabinet for Human Resources

Manager of statistical analysis of state/federal expenditures

Division of Financial Management, Cabinet for Families and Children

Manager of Accounts Management Branch charged with recovering monies owed the state and federal governments

PUBLICATIONS

Co-author, Washington County Bicentennial (1991)

Critical editor, Scott County, Kentucky, a History (1993)

"The Nixon Administration and the Revised Philadelphia Plan for Affirmative Action: A Study in Expanding Presidential Power and Divided Government," Presidential Studies Quarterly, XXIII, No.1, Winter, 93

Contributor (seven biographical sketches), Biographical Directory of the Governors of the United States, 1789-1976

“For the Union: Kentucky’s Unconditional Unionists Congressmen and the Development of the Republican Party in Kentucky, 1863-1865,” Register of the Kentucky Historical Society (July, 1978)

“The Union and Slavery: Congressman Brutus J. Clay of the Bluegrass,” Register of the Kentucky Historical Society (July, 1977)

“Marching to Zion: Christianity and Progressivism in Nelson and Washington Counties, Kentucky,” Register of the Kentucky Historical Society (Spring, 1989)

Visions of Zion: Christianity, Modernization, and the American Pursuit of Liberty Rural Progressivism in Nelson and Washington Counties, Kentucky (University Press of America, 2005)

The Old Man Who Dance Naked Around the Flagpole (AuthorHouse, 2006), a novel, penname James Scott

Restless Heart: Kentucky’s Search for Individual Liberty and Community (University Press of America, August, 2008)